

Art Space Gallery Membership Application

Art Space Gallery is an artist owned cooperative gallery at 342 Main St. Rockland, Maine. Our new season begins in May of each year. The gallery exhibits all media including original paintings, collage, photography, prints, pottery, glass, wood, sculpture and jewelry. Art Space is located in the heart of Rockland's Downtown, just steps from the Farnsworth Museum. Membership is juried by artist members. The gallery began in 2005 and has been a successful venue for bringing original art created by artist members to the attention of the discerning collector. Art Space has an active group of approximately twenty artists who all participate in running the gallery. Members live within Maine.

Each artist is responsible to gallery sit and engage the buying public during scheduled gallery hours.
